WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be “used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research.” If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of “fair use,” that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgement, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

Interlibrary Loan (ILL)

Welcome to ILLiad!!

Interlibrary Loan (ILL) services are available to John Jay College faculty (and their authorized John Jay research assistants), graduate students, staff and undergraduate students (article requestors only) for academic research purposes. Books, articles, book chapters, dissertations and media items that John Jay does not own and that cannot be requested through CLICS or through the media department (contact the media librarian, Prof. Nancy Egan, 212-237-8269, negan@jjay.cuny.edu) can be ordered via ILL. We will not generally accept requests for textbooks and popular works.

How to logon and submit a request

All users, both new and returning, must first logon. If you are a new user, you will be prompted to complete a registration form after you log in.

Use your John Jay username and password (which is the same username and password you use to access your John Jay email account) to logon.

Questions about ILL?

- For faculty and staff, your username is your first initial and your last name (e.g. Jane Doe's username would be Jdoe).
- For graduate students and authorized undergraduate research assistants, your username is your first name, period, last name (e.g. Jane.Doe).
- Your password is 'jj' followed by the last four digits of your Social Security Number (e.g. JJ1234), unless you have changed it.

To Request Books

1. Search for the item you need in CLICS, using the "All CUNY Libraries" search option.
2. If the title is owned by another CUNY library, and it is a "regular loan" item, request it through CLICS. CUNY Libraries Inter-Campus Services. It can be delivered to the John Jay College library or another CUNY library of your choice.
3. If the item cannot be ordered through CLICS, you may place an ILL request for it by logging into your ILL account and completing a book request form.
4. Please include the ISBN for faster delivery.

To Request Articles

1. From any database, use FINDINGS to determine the availability of the journal article you are looking for. Or, if you are not already within a database, search CUNY+ to determine whether John Jay owns the journal title, volume, and issue you need.
2. If the journal or volume is unavailable at John Jay, request the article via ILL by logging into your account and completing an article request form.
3. Articles are delivered to your ILL account as a PDF file. You will be notified by email when it becomes available. Please be sure your current email address is listed in your ILL account. The PDF file will be available for 30 days from the date of receipt. Please download the article within 30 days, because copyright restrictions may apply if we re-order the article.

Questions? Please contact Karen Ohamoto at 646-550-4777, or Dee Dee Akonas at 212-237-6237, or email ill@jjay.cuny.edu.

- The GC may own an article you request:
  - Search for it first in full-text GC e-Journals
  - Search for it in print at the GC via CUNY+CLICS

- Request CUNY books via CUNY+CLICS:
  - Use ILL if CLICS fails – just explain in the request Notes field
  - Always request Audio-Visual and Music Library items via ILL; CLICS is too slow

- Request book chapters via ILL:
  - Request only one chapter of a work, because of copyright
  - A book chapter arrives more quickly than a book

- Search WorldCat, Google Scholar, or Databases for items outside CUNY
  - Use findlit to auto-fill your ILL request forms
  - Use in conjunction with the GC library toolbar to find GC items

To Request Books
2. If the book is owned by another CUNY library and is a "regular loan" item, request it using the "Request" button. It can be delivered to the Brooklyn College Library's Circulation Desk or another CUNY library of your choice.
3. If the item cannot be ordered through the CUNY Libraries catalog, you may place an interlibrary loan (ILL) request for it by logging into your ILLiad account and completing the book request form.
4. You may also use WorldCat to request any non-CUNY book via ILL. WorldCat will automatically populate your ILLiad request form.
5. If you have questions, see the FAQ for more information.

To Request Articles
1. To determine the availability of a journal article, search the E-Journals Finder and the Brooklyn College catalog to determine whether Brooklyn College owns the journal title, volume, and issue you need.
2. If a journal is available at Brooklyn College in any format, including microfilm, do not request the article via ILLiad.
3. If a journal is unavailable at Brooklyn College, request it via ILLiad in one of the two ways:
   a. Fill out the ILLiad article request form manually, or
   b. Click on the article's "Order" button on the database results page. Then request the item via interlibrary loan.
4. Most articles and book chapters are delivered electronically. Articles that arrive on paper will be held at the Circulation Desk for pickup, and you will be notified by email.
5. If you have questions, see the FAQ for more information.

ILLiad is the CUNY libraries' national systems for interlibrary loan and electronic reserves, including the CUNY library catalog and Worldcat.
The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship or research. If a user makes a request for, orlater uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.
